

The Chair of Mobile Business & Multilateral Security of Prof. Dr. Kai Rannenbergl offers jobs for student workers (m/f) who are interested in a long-term cooperation.

We offer:

- An extremely interesting, varied and practical work
- Insights into current topics such as Mobile Business, Security and Identity Management
- The opportunity for independent and flexible work
- Depending on your personal skills and interests we offer tasks: in the context of our national and international research projects, in the maintenance of our department and project websites, in supporting the chair's teaching and administrative activities, in software development and programming in the mobile environment and in the support of the execution and evaluation of empirical studies.

We expect:

- Self-management and the willingness to become familiar with new topics independently
- Good foreign language skills (English)
- Motivation and enjoyment of work
- Good or very good knowledge of MS Office (PowerPoint, Excel, Word, Outlook, ...)
- Knowledge of at least one of the following subject areas is advantageous:
  - Web Content Management (TYPO3)
  - Mobile App Development for iOS and Android (Objective C, Java)
  - Installation and administration of clients (Windows, Linux)
  - Multivariate Analysis (SPSS, R)
  - Document preparation (LaTeX)

Applicants are requested to send their application documents to:
hiwi-bewerbungen@m-chair.net