The Chair of Mobile Business & Multilateral Security offers jobs for student workers (m/f) who are interested in a long-term cooperation.

What we offer to you:

- An interesting, varied and practical work
- Insights into current research topics in the fields of Mobile Business, Information Security & Privacy and Identity Management
- The opportunity for independent and flexible work
- Individual task assignment based on your personal skills and interests
- Participation in the organization and execution of user studies for mobile application prototypes

What we expect from you:

- Self-management and the willingness to become familiar with new topics independently
- Motivation and enjoyment of work
- Good skills in English
- Skills in the following areas are of advantage:
  - Software Development / Smartphone Application Development (e.g. Android, iOS, Web Apps)
  - Document markup and preparation with LaTeX, reference management (e.g. BibTeX, Mendeley, Citavi)
  - Web Content Management (e.g. TYPO3)
  - Systematic literature search in scientific literature databases
  - Installation and administration of PC clients (Windows, Linux)

Applicants are requested to send their application documents to:
hiwi-bewerbungen@m-chair.net

www.m-chair.net | www.twitter.com/mchair